

1. Suffering raises questions in our minds.

Kinds of suffering:

_____, which can be _____, _____, or _____.
_____ or _____,
with large numbers of people involved.

2. Most often, the _____ or _____ of God is part of the question.

The questions are not _____.

The Bible does not _____ them.

The Bible does not fully _____ them.

3. Sometimes the questions need to be _____.

What makes us experience things as _____?

Where do we get our sense of _____?

What _____ are adequate to justify suffering?

How much suffering should be _____?

Who are the _____?

4. God did not give us _____; He gave us a _____.

In doing this He also gave us a _____ and a _____.

5. The question we must ask: What does God want me to _____?