

Those who are “in Christ” are no longer under condemnation. We have been set free from the law that says anyone who sins must die (see Rom. 6:23). So while the struggle with sin and temptation continues, the fear of failure does not need to hinder us. Why do we still struggle with sin, and how can it be overcome? How can we be truly changed?

1. There is a change in _____.

God has placed those who have faith _____, rather than _____.

This means we _____, _____, and _____.

Problem: for the saving action of God, there are always _____.

They always misidentify both the _____ and the _____.

2. There is a change in _____.

“In Adam” people are controlled by _____.

What this means:

“The Real Transformer” Romans 8:7-17

July 13, 2008

“In Christ” people are controlled by _____.

We still struggle because _____ and _____.

Principle: The more we live by the Spirit, the greater will be our sense of _____, _____, and _____. These are _____ terms in this world.

3. There is a change in _____.

The destiny in Christ prepares us for _____;

it also prepares us for _____.